WABI VASE MINI

Wabi vases are inspired by the thought of Wabi-Sabi, the aesthetic that finds beauty in things imperfect and incomplete. Each vase in the Wabi collection embraces this philosophy, celebrating the organic and uneven shapes that give them a unique character and charm. Wabi vases are meticulously shaped from mouth-blown glass, where the coloured glass is heated to 1500 degrees before being placed inside a custom mould. Air is blown into the glass to make it expand and achieve the iconic Wabi form. Afterward, it's taken out of the mould and placed inside an oven for tempering, with the top opening finally cut even and polished afterwards. The collection consists of two sizes, each thoughtfully designed to bring a touch of nature into your home. The Smoked Forest colour enhances the natural, earthy feel of the vases, creating a warm and calming presence in any space. The irregular contours and soft lines of the Wabi vases reflect the imperfections found in nature, encouraging us to find beauty in the everyday and the imperfect. Whether displayed individually or as a group, these vases can complement a variety of interior styles.
